

Rural Services

Rural Services assists agricultural employers through the National Agricultural Recruitment System and registers farm labor contractors (crew leaders) and their employees, as required by the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act.

For information and assistance in this area, please contact your nearest VEC Local Office [1] or contact the VEC State Monitor Advocate, Michelle Abraham, at 804-786-6094 or by FAX at 804-786-6091.

Rural Services Program

The Virginia Employment Commission's Rural Services Unit, located at the agency's central office in Richmond, has the responsibility for processing agricultural, seasonal (H-2A) job orders through the National Agricultural Recruitment System and to register farm labor contractors (crew leaders) and their employees, as required by the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act.

The Rural Services Unit [2] also conducts farm labor seminars for agricultural employers on a statewide basis.
